

Lawyer in Langley

Lawyer in Langley - Our company offers advice and services in addition to representing our clients in both public and private sectors whose activities are subject to environmental regulation. We have a extremely specialized environmental expertise in a broad range of legal disciplines. Our specialized environmental law practitioners work directly together with experts in litigation, corporate/commercial law and municipal law.

We offer strategic environmental and project management advice, since we know that our clients should balance sound environmental practices with solid business decisions. We act as counsel to proponents of major infrastructure projects all through environmental assessments.

Our Environmental Group gives regulatory intervention training that goes beyond the "traditional" legal recommendation offered by the majority of companies. Through field rehearsals and seminars, we prepare clients for probable regulatory intervention to help prevent enforcement proceedings.

We give environmental counsel on corporate transactions of different size and complexity consisting of the sale or purchase of shares and assets, as well as related financings.

Our brownfields redevelopment services comprise advising on tax incremental financing; processing and initiating all needed applications and approvals; engaging and overseeing consultants so as to prepare remedial action plans; Site Specific Risk Assessments and/or Records of Site Condition; and liaising along with municipal officials and Ministry of Environment.

To handle regulatory investigations and inspections, our lawyers offer creative and practical solutions, that help in preparation of our clients probable future investigations. Our experienced litigators defend clients charged under provincial, federal and municipal environmental and connected legislation.