

Sports Law Langley

Sports Law Langley - Our company assists many individual athletes, both professional and amateur, as well as various sports organizations with their problems concerning sports law. Our clients perform in various sports including hockey, baseball, track and field, football to name some.

Our company has extensive knowledge in handling matters which take place within Minor Hockey. Our lawyers are knowledgeable and well seasoned in the many circumstances which may take place including negotiations, administrative hearings, and in trial.

Many of our sports lawyers have been requested to appear on media outlets including radio and TV since they have a great deal of knowledge.