

Estate Lawyers Langley

Estate Lawyers Langley - When somebody you love becomes incapacitated or passes away estate litigation immediately follows. Emotions, interpersonal and family quarrels occur, which in turn makes the responsibility of making essential decisions practically unbearable. Our firm has various kinds of services which can guarantee that all of the estate matters are handled rapidly and efficiently.

We could provide our assistance to the numerous executors, personal representatives, and beneficiaries regarding challenges to power of attorney, wills and trusts. These challenges could even consist of trusteeship and guardianship disputes, undue influence and will interpretation, dependent adult claims, and capacity. Moreover, trusts, charitable institutions and trustees can rely on our firm for useful advice.

In the case when the estate or a dependent adult are involved, stressful and difficult situations can arise. We would ensure that all our clients are given straight-forward and effective advice. Our resolutions are accomplished through mediation, arbitration or litigation.
