

Langley Tax Lawyers

Langley Tax Lawyers - Our Tax Planning and Dispute Resolution Team offer practical and innovative tax planning solutions. In today's complicated tax environment, good tax recommendation is important for both individuals and businesses. Virtually every aspect of daily life involves some form of tax consideration, affecting both personal and business decision making. Whether you are buying or selling a company, dealing with matrimonial property dispute, issuing securities, estate planning, organizing a charity or planning charitable donations, sound tax suggestion is vital for long-term success in life.

Our firm provides services and advice connected to nearly all aspects of corporate tax planning, mergers and acquisitions, wills and estate planning, corporate finance, divestitures, matrimonial property settlements and corporate reorganizations. We have lots of clients that include individuals, corporations, joint ventures, limited and general partnerships, as well as various businesses and organizations. Our experts in the field of tax law are recognized experts in the field and are regularly invited to make presentations at tax law conferences.

Within Corporate Tax Planning, our tax group offers tax strategies for mergers and acquisitions, transfer pricing agreements, asset transfers, wind-ups, common and preferred share offerings, joint ventures, partnerships as well as other business problems. We even acquire advance pricing agreements, technical rulings and interpretations. Our lawyers offer value-based, knowledgeable, priority service.

Within the sphere of Resource Taxation, we provide tax planning and mineral royalties recommendation about major resource developments, like for example oil and gas, mining, agriculture and pulp and paper.

We offer sound advice concerning Sales Tax, income tax, tax audits and objections to assist attain resolution of tax disputes. Moreover, our tax litigators will represent clients before the courts when necessary.

We can assist and advise with Employment Compensation and Benefits, matters associated to compensation and benefits law and pensions.

We have services for our clients in the field of Wills and Estate Planning, consisting of estate planning and preparation of wills, estate freezes and income splitting. We can even assist in corporate reorganizations.