

Tax Lawyer Langley

Tax Lawyer Langley - Our office spends a large part of our resources on taxation problems. We have seasoned lawyers who are skilled in the fields of corporate, personal, estate, and international tax planning. This includes, but is not limited to, limiting and assessing the damage caused by mergers and acquisitions, corporate reorganizations, commercial transactions, and public and private financings.

We give services in the submission, negotiation and preparation in advance tax rulings. Our teams of lawyers will help you in all the stages and steps of the tax appeal process, during the preparation and filing of the notice of objection till the subsequent appeals and/or trials. Clients can be assured that they will be completely represented in all aspects of transactions carried out with the tax authorities.
