

Langley Legal Aid

Langley Legal Aid - Our company specializes in Education and Public Law, representing and advising a lot of school boards and educator organizations about the several legal problems affecting them.

Amongst the legal assistance we provide in public law and education law are labour and employment relationships, contract negotiations, civil, commercial and general litigation, human rights, special education, judicial review and appeals, administrative law, freedom of information and privacy law, constitutional law, conflict of interest law and health law. We also advise and act on behalf of educator clients in aspects of corporate-commercial, like municipal law, real estate law and construction law.

To be able to help educators in handling complex matters facing them, we provide comprehensive, effective and timely services.

Our clients comprise public and Catholic school boards, Ministries of Education, boards and agencies and governmental commissions. Our Education and Public Law practitioners work closely with professionals in our Real Estate group and Business Law Group.

Our firm and our lawyers are normally called upon to make presentations at national conferences and in-service seminars. They regularly publish articles about education and public law in journals and magazines.
