

Legal Aid Langley

Legal Aid Langley - In order to generate the least amount of risk, whilst maximizing profit is the ultimate goal when handling a corporate transaction. The system of taxation is really complex, with many various rules and goals that helps regulate both foreign and domestic businesses. Our practice provides sound advice concerning tax planning and aids in the resolution of tax controversies. We try to guarantee that all transactions run quickly and tax-efficiently.

From the start, we bring in our lawyers to help our clients in problems about divestitures, acquisitions, and the structuring and negotiation of mergers. This ensures that each and every undertaking is tax efficient so that our clients may maximize their profit.

Our office and our lawyers have extensive experience regarding resources, communications, power, transportation, technology, real estate, manufacturing and financial services. Additionally, we also advise pension funds, sovereign wealth funds and private equity investors. We have even converted some income trusts and royalty funds to corporate form.

Our lawyers within our firm are well-versed in all aspects of tax law consisting of sales tax, anti dumping, along with other trade and commodity taxes. Manufactured goods transactions or financial services which are being done across borders will normally need some knowledge in the field of commodity taxation. Our office has the experience and knowledge so as to help our clients reach their tax goals.

Among the main sectors we are involved in is acquiring advance income tax rulings. We are also normally asked to offer opinions concerning several problems pertaining to tax audits, and to advise on provincial and even federal tax legislation. Additionally, companies call upon us to advise them about stock options and different equity compensation arrangements.
