

Langley Real Estate Lawyers

Langley Real Estate Lawyers - Our Real Estate Group is a recognized leader in the purchase, development and sale of real property, leasing transactions and real estate financing. We represent and advise clients within the development, construction and management of residential and commercial condominiums, residential rental projects, office buildings, hotels, shopping centres and retirement homes. Our clients include developers of residential, commercial, industrial and institutional real estate, international and domestic real property investors and providers of construction services, financing and property management.

We have represented both public entities and private developers in transactions including public-private partnerships (P3) for infrastructure because we are skilled and knowledgeable about the institutional, policy and political matters included in structuring and implementing transactions.

We help clients with financing, procurement and infrastructure planning. Our multi-disciplinary approach enables our real estate lawyers to draw on the resources of other experts in our firm. We offer our clients different advice considered necessary to be successful in real estate joint ventures and financings, syndications, reorganizations, environmental assessments and financial workouts.
