

Best Divorce Lawyer in Langley

Best Divorce Lawyer in Langley - When planning our estate there are some stuff that you must take into account beyond only a Last Will and Testament. Deferring and reducing taxes, selecting the beneficiary of your life insurance benefits, homes, pension plans, practices and businesses are all things that you have to take into account. Our office is experienced in various issues regarding wills and estates and is capable of providing valuable and efficient estate planning suggestion.

Preparing for illness is a difficult matter which is included in nearly all comprehensive estate plans. Using advice from our seasoned lawyers, our clients can prepare their Personal Directive, Dependent Adult Application and Enduring Power of Attorney.

We are experienced in the matters of the succession of family businesses and charitable giving. Several of our lawyers frequently attend lectures and publish articles associated to estate planning.

Dependent Relief Act Application, Challenging Wills, matrimonial property issues, Intestate Succession Act issues, same sex relationships and adult interdependent relationships are all probate and estate litigation matters in which we specialize.
