

Langley Business Law

Langley Business Law - We can help businesses of all sizes and types to assist them reach their objectives. Our aim at our firm is to offer value-based and client-centred legal services. With our trademark combination of innovative and traditional approaches to business law, we assist many of this nation's most recognized and successful commercial enterprises, and assist with development varying in size from millions to hundreds of millions of dollars.

Our firm works as an integrated team with other lawyers, engineers and specialists all around North America and all over the globe. Our company and legal advice has helped hundreds of major resource-based developments reach their goals, from mining projects to gas and oil developments, from agribusiness to pulp and paper. We design creative partnerships and joint ventures amongst governments, companies, co-operatives, merchant bankers, venture capitalists and financial institutions.

We offer sound business recommendation to clients about acquisitions, divestitures and mergers all through the entire transaction cycle, comprising legal due diligence, structuring, and negotiating offers to purchase, letters of intent and agreements of sale and purchase.

To help serve our clients in the areas of tax planning and the governance and structuring of different entities, our company has a strong practice in commercial law. We work on a lot of problems including negotiated project financing, construction and engineering agreements, and international commodity marketing agreements for business enterprises.

We help grassroots entrepreneurship through our services to medium sized and small businesses. We help in the development of effective management and business structures. We could help entrepreneurs' access capital and establish positive relationships along with customers and suppliers. Our lawyers have extensive knowledge with cross-border transactions and can assist small companies to become successful exporters.
