

Langley Business Law Firm

Langley Business Law Firm - Our company's Business Law group understands the business objectives of our clients and helps in attaining those objectives with customized, timely and efficient legal counsel. Our clients include private and public businesses, partnerships and their boards of directors and executives. We act as business advisors, making use of the multidisciplinary strengths of our lawyers in the full range of business law fields, like for example mergers and acquisitions, corporate governance, tax planning and environmental compliance. We have expertise in businesses ranging from sports and entertainment to communications and information technology.

Our Business Law Group helps clients with several commercial agreements comprising the preparation of confidentiality agreements, license agreements, employment agreements, customer service agreements, supply contract agreements, project agreements, consulting agreements, non-competition agreements and management agreements.

We help with the purchase or sale of shares or assets of businesses. This consists of the coordination of auctions, related due diligence, required financing and regulatory approval under the Competition Act and other statutes. Our team has facilitated business combinations intended in order to implement complicated company reorganizations in a tax efficient way, such as amalgamations, "butterfly" transactions and plans of arrangement.
