

Civil Litigation Lawyers Langley

Civil Litigation Lawyers Langley - Provided within the Competition Act, consists areas like refusal to deal, price maintenance, mergers and acquisitions, competitor agreements, abuse of dominant position, tied selling, and other anti-competitive trade practices. The practices of bid rigging, conspiracies, and deceptive marketing practices are prohibited.

Our company has extensive knowledge concerning commercial clients as well as inquires by the Commissioner of Competition under the Act. This comprises appearing before both the Competition Tribunal and the Federal Court. We talk about planned mergers and acquisitions together with the Competition Bureau on behalf of our clients and have also participated in many lawsuits concerning anti-competitive practice allegations. Our company has the skill and expertise required in order to make sure our clients have up-to-date data about compliance issues.