

Langley Personal Injury

Langley Personal Injury - Personal injuries can cause a time that can be confusing and overwhelming. Your personal life could get overturned physically, emotionally and financially. We have trusted and experienced advisors you can always depend upon. Our personal injury lawyer and senior law clerk have the specialized legal skill to be able to provide you with expert suggestion and representation. We can help you to know the legislation as it applies to your case, and we would take the time to explain all of your choices. We will be there from start to finish of the personal injury legal procedure.

Your initial consultation with a knowledgeable personal injury lawyer will be provided without charge. If we accept your case on a "contingency fee" basis, you might not have to pay an initial retainer fee. In these situations, you would pay nothing in legal fees if we are unable to get compensation for you. We will be given a percentage of the settlement if we are successful in acquiring compensation. We would ensure that you understand all the details of the retainer agreement before you sign.

To be able to avoid your rights from expiring, you should contact us as soon as possible following your injury. The specific time periods within which you need to bring your claim could differ from a couple of days to two years.

Our vast experience extends into the following areas of personal injury: motor vehicle accidents; dog bites and animal attacks; pension plan appeals, slip and fall injuries and long-term disability claims.

The majority of personal injury cases are effectively settled without going to trial. Our goal is to be able to provide effectual negotiation and prevent costly court proceedings. Nonetheless, we have skilled litigators who would represent you before the court if it becomes needed.
