

Mergers and Acquisitions Langley

Mergers and Acquisitions Langley - Our Mergers and Acquisitions Group is involved in several complicated mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, and reorganizations on behalf our clients operating in business industries, jurisdictions and sectors.

Our firm is among the top ranked companies and is unmatched with regards to the monetary value and number of international and domestic deals we have handled. We have acted as lead counsel in over $90 billion worth of transactions. Our lawyers are committed to a pioneering and inventive practice.

We have devised a lot of original takeover expansions, strategies and bids. Our assistance span different contested and negotiated mergers and acquisitions on behalf of mid-cap and large issuers, royalty trusts, institutional investors, income funds, closely held corporations, investment banking and private equity community members, in addition to shareholder groups, boards, and committees. Our corporate and litigation lawyers provide counseling on proxy contests, poison bills and hostile bids. We advise special committees and boards of directors concerning these concerns. We often handle spin-outs, joint ventures, leveraged buyouts, exchangeable share transactions, private mergers, going private transactions and carve-outs.

Our company advises concerning the different aspects of transactions utilizing our multidisciplinary team of employment, real estate, intellectual property, tax and competition lawyers. Mergers and acquisitions are complicated and will need that all parties work closely from the beginning so as to move deals forward.